

Biography-Susan Mark

Susan Mark is a local artist, musician, author/illustrator, and long time Kamloops resident whose 27 year career in the Kamloops school district has led her to teach in the Education Department at Thompson Rivers University. Upon completing her Master's degree in Education, she became the School Districts' Fine Art's Coordinator for several years. Sue has written, illustrated and published a number of children's books for various charities. She is an active Kamloops volunteer and her work, over the years, has supported charities including the Kamloops Food Bank, BCSPCA, and the Canadian Cancer Society. She is thrilled to be working with the Kamloops Symphony Orchestra to create the illustrations for BABAR and the Educational program to accompany it.
